DISCOVERING THE CAPTURING DESTINATIONS

Explore and experience the culture rich city of Phnom Penh with some of the most famous landmarks and attractions

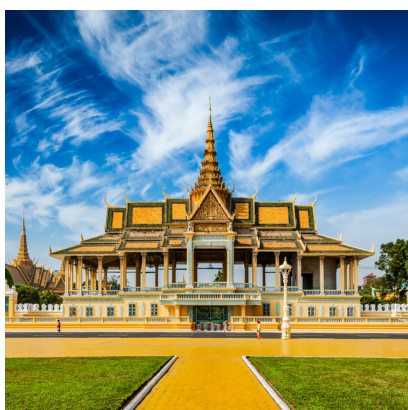

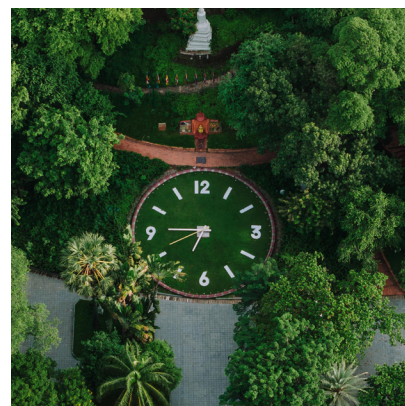

PHNOM PENH NATIONAL MUSEUM

If you are keen in art gallery, culture and history of Cambodia, Phnom Penh National Museum is the best place to start with. As a home to the world's finest collection of Khmer sculpture, it's a place where you can experience a graceful terracotta structure of traditional design from 1917 to 1920 with an inviting courtyard garden. The museum houses the displays of pottery and bronzes dating back to pre-Angkor periods as well as the current artistry works of Khmer culture. It takes only 14 minutes by car from LUXCITY to reach the destination.

WAT PHNOM

One of the most easily overlooking landmarks by tourists is Wat Phnom. Considered to be an iconic symbol of Phnom Penh, Wat Phnom monastery is famous behind the story of rich elder woman who happened to stumbled across the floating log where she found five Buddha statues inside. The Buddha statues were then be placed for blessing in the man-made hill whose name was suggested after the elder woman "Wat Phnom Daun Penh" that means "Mountain Monastery by Grandma Penh". Later on, People only use the short name as Wat Phnom. Wat Phnom is encompassed by trees and plants that are inviting for various species like monkey, chipmunk, and bird species like toucan, etc. You can visit Wat Phnom by 34-minute walk or 9 minutes by car from LUXCITY.

THE ROYAL PALACE

Indulge the marvel of Phnom Penh – The Royal Palace.

Until 1866 that Phnom Penh was designated as the capital of Cambodia, following the King's relocation to the city and the building of an opulent palace close to the river.

The Royal Palace - a magnificent example of Cambodian royal architecture that occupies over 174,870 sqm of the city center, has since become a symbol of the capital and a must-see for tourists with its beautiful Khmer roofs, elaborate gilding, and lush gardens. While not all of the Palace is accessible to the public, some areas are available for the visit, including the Throne Hall with its 59-meter-tall tower modeled after Angkor's Bayon style, the outdoor Chan Chaya Pavilion (Dancing Pavilion), which occasionally hosts classical Khmer dance performances, and the Silver Pagoda featuring the Buddha statue covered in almost 9,000 diamonds and a floor made of sterling silver. The destination is just 17 minutes by car from LUXCITY.

CENTRAL MARKET

A tour for the market will be best for you to know more about the life of Cambodian people. Central Market will be a good place to start. Built between 1935 – 37, the bustling market is adorned by the dark-yellow Art Deco with a nice shape cross form and the dome in the middle. The market is entrenched with many goods and items you can ever find from souvenirs to food and much more. Tip for shopping in Central Market is to check for the good price and quality of the items before you buy. It takes only 7 minutes by car and 22 minutes walks from LUXCITY to visit Central Market.

EDEN GARDEN

If you are looking the blend in between the night life and friendly place to eat and drink, Eden Garden is also a warm welcoming avenue for your choice. From open bars & grills to dine-in restaurants with various foods from around the world to Khmer cuisine, there is always something for you to get around. The avenue also indulges with shopping mall, stores, cinema and nightlife entertainment that will get your attention even more. The distance is close enough to LUXCITY which take only 6 minutes by car and 20 minutes by walking.

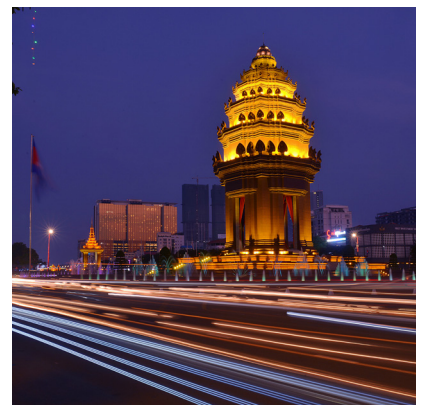

BASSAC LANE

Are you looking for a night out and not knowing where to go? Bassac Lane – the vibrant avenue for night life, might be your best start. The place is soaked with night clubs, bars and restaurants, you can find almost any kind of food and drink from Asian delights, Western to Far east. It is known as one of the most Phnom Penh's best-loved after-dark hotspots for beer, cocktails, or a bite to eat. It is a best haven for bar-hoppers or party-goers who wish to extend the curiosity further into the night. It takes only 15 minutes by car from LUXCITY to Bassac Lane.

INDEPENDENCE MONUMENT

A symbolic of peace and independence from colony is one of the most important historical achievements in Cambodia. To celebrate and remember this remarkable moment, Independence Monument were established in 1958 to memorialize Cambodia's independence from France in 1953. The majestic structure is the form of a lotus-shaped stupa inspired by Boteay Srei architecture style. It is opened publicly for tourists, locals and state visit for foreign country leaders. It takes 13 minutes by car and 51 minutes from LUXCITY to Independence Monument.

PHNOM PENH RIVERSIDE

There is no doubt that Phnom Penh Riverside is the place where tourists hardly miss because of the leisure vibe and serenity it brings. Either you wish for a long stroll by day or jogging exercise by morning, the riverside is the good place to begin with. The stunning riverfront view of Tonle Sap captures the life nurturing beauty of mother nature that blesses this city and its people. To elevate your experience even further, you can book the evening boat tour to see all the astonishing city views and river bank. If you are keen on photography, it might be the best spot on the list. It takes 10 minutes to reach the riverside by car and 40 minutes by walking from LUXCITY. For boat tour booking information, you can inquire further at our LUXCITY reception counter.

TUOL SLENG GENOCIDE MUSEUM

Despite the friendly nature and beauty of the country, Cambodia was once stained by the dark past, which cannot be forgotten and it is remembered forever. Tuol Sleng Genocide Museum known as S-21 is one among those historical places, which was once used as the genocidal prison by Khmer rouge regime to interrogate and torture political and innocent prisoners who they intentionally convicted. You can explore more deeply inside the museum gallery with all the displayed information about Khmer rouge regime and their atrocity on Cambodian people. It preserves evidence of a tragic period in Cambodian history with the aim of encouraging visitors to be messengers of peace. To visit Tuol Sleng, you can travel car for 15 minutes from LUXCITY.

PHNOM PENH STREET FOODS

Phnom Penh Street Foods are usually underrated because the price is quite cheaper than other in-house foods. The never-ending sequence of street food stalls, night markets and friendly vendors offering you just the right choice of food. In most of Cambodia towns, not only in Phnom Penh, street food stands out because of its open-air markets and after-dark stalls that glow with old fashion food joints, wooden food carts, plastic stools and tables and a huddle of people looking for the treats after a long day of work. The taste of the street food sometimes is much better than some good restaurants but only if you can spot the good one around the corner. If you keen to find out more, Two-deer Park is just 8 minutes way from LUXCITY by walking. You can explore the food stalls after-dark there and experience the local delights at ease. Just for caution – you can run the risk of food poisoning if you are not careful of what you are choosing to eat.
